Wicklow County excursion and Guinness Storehouse tour

This morning you will set off for the day to explore County Wicklow 'The Garden of Ireland'. We will visit Powerscourt House & Gardens, one of the most beautiful estates in Ireland. By year 1300, a castle had been built and was in the possession of the le Paor family. In 1603 Powerscourt castle and lands were granted to a new English arrival in the area, A Richard Wingfield, and his descendants remained there for over 350 years. The house burnt down in 1974 but fortunately the plans of the house were saved and reconstruction started in 1974. Today the house has been restored to its former glory. Return to Dublin this afternoon for a visit at the famous Guinness Storehouse, Europe's largest stout producing brewery and home to the Guinness Storehouse. Opened in 1904, the Storehouse was an operational plant for fermenting and storing Guinness. Today it houses a very fine exhibition dedicated to the Guinness story. Once the tour has finished, we are invited to the Gravity Bar to enjoy a pint of Guinness.

Dinner & Entertainment at the Merry Ploughboy Irish Music Pub

The Merry Ploughboys live in concert is widely regarded as the best traditional music show in Dublin and also as a must see. The show is a highly entertaining performance of live traditional Irish music, song and Irish dancing.

Cork City

Today you will get to explore Cork City, the second largest city in Ireland, including English Market, Blarney Castle, and Blarney Woollen Mills. The origins of the English Market trace back to the times of King James I in 1610, some four hundred years previously and has been officially trading since 1788. A mix of traditional Cork fare and exciting new foods from afar, combined with long standing family-run stalls contribute to the unique appeal and atmosphere of this market. Culinary delights include quality meats and fish, herbs, spices, fruit, vegetables, baked delicacies and speciality cheeses. Some of the more unique traditional fare includes drisheen (blood sausage), tripe, spiced beef, buttered eggs and battlebord, (dried salted ling, a member of the cod family). The historic Blarney Castle is perhaps most famous for the Blarney Stone. According to legend, the stone has the power to give anyone who kisses it the 'gift of the gab' (or the ability to be a smooth talker), so for those who dare, a climb to the battlements to reach the famous stone could be well worth it. No trip to Ireland is complete without a visit to the legendary Blarney Woollen Mills., Blarney Woollen Mills offers an essential Irish shopping experience. Originally established in 1823, Blarney Woollen Mills now houses a large selection of Irish products. With a wide selection of sweaters and woollens, crystal and china, gifts and souvenirs for all, this famous store has something for everyone.
